

Dimensions of Vulnerability

Thursday, April 5th

Room 3D

9.00–9.30	Conference Opening
9.30–10.30	Moya Lloyd Mobilizing vulnerability for/as politics?

room 3D

Line Ryberg Ingerslev

room 3F

Philipp Schmidt

11.00–11.45	Fabian Bernhardt: Unseen Wounds. The Epistemic Dimension of Vulnerability	David Doat: Vulnerability: a conceptual reevaluation
11.45–12.30	Matthew Congdon: From Pain to Moral Injury: A Normative Typology of Aversive Experience	Martin Huth Vulnerability - strengths and limits of a fundamental concept of practical philosophy

12.30 Lunch

Room 3D

Sergej Seitz

Room 3F

Gerald Posselt

14.00–14.45	Miri Rozmarin When the Going Gets Tough: On Vulnerability and Agency	James Griffith Fantasy and Vulnerability: On Hobbes and Butler
14.45–15.30	Jule Govrin Vulnerable in Destruction: Judith Butler's Concept of Desire and Aggressive Affects	Mathias Nygard Vulnerability as a Christian Virtue: Reading Nietzsche with Scheler, Girard and Vattimo
16.00–16.45	Sandro Gorgone Vulnerability and Responsibility: A new Humanism? From Emmanuel Levinas to Judith Butler	Jason Cruze White Blackout
16.45–17.30	Hannah Voegele Responsibility for Vulnerability: Towards a Butlerian Account of Political Responsibility	Onur Kartal From Ethics of Vulnerability to Politics of Homo Sacer: Emmanuel Levinas, Frantz Fanon and Giorgio Agamben
17.45–18.30	Ignacio Garces Garcia Politicizing the vulnerability turn: Notes from the Platform for People affected by mortgages (PAH)	Ronald Olufemi Badru Distant Poverty, Human Vulnerability, and the African Ethics of Character

19.30 Conference Dinner
Restaurant to be announced

Friday, April 6th

	room 3D Anna Wieder	room 3F Jason Wesley Alvis
9.00-9.45	Joseph Wiinikka-Lyon A Distress that Cannot Be Forgotten: Engaging Moral Vulnerability and Moral Injury	L'ubica Kobová Vulnerable Working bodies
9.45-10.30	Hannah Wallenfels Today we Mourn. Tomorrow We Organize. Or: Reflections on a Politics of Vulnerability, Feminism and Resistance	Timo Juetten Vulnerability through Self-Investment
11.00–11.45	Pritika Nehra Political dimensions of Institutional Vulnerability	Diana Tietjens Meyers Human Rights and the Vulnerability of Rights-bearers
11.45–12.30	M. Birna van Riemsdijk Intimate Computing is Computing with Vulnerability	Gottfried Schweiger Ethics and the Developing Vulnerability of Children
12.30 Lunch
	room 3D Gerhard Thonhauser	room 3F Martin Huth
14.00–14.45	Jan Bierhanzl On the Problem of weak Action: Arendt, Levinas and Butler	Tobias Eichinger Vulnerability and responsibility – Ethical aspects of the moralisation of health
14.45–15.30	Giovanna Caruso Vulnerability as Biological Dimension: Considerations based on Helmuth Plessner	Agomoni Ganguli-Mitra et.al. Connecting Vulnerability and Justice in Global Health Emergencies
16.00–16.45	Alexandra Valadas “I am the world’s wounds. My wounds become the world”: Vulnerability, Reflexivity, and Ontology	Denise Butnaru Bodies Redesigned: Disability, Technology and Emerging Phenomenologies of Vulnerability
16.45–17.30	Michael Hearn An Ethics of Vulnerability: The Ethical Brain Hypothesis at First Blush	Michal Gleitman Access to justice for people with disabilities: between autonomy and vulnerability
17.30-18.00 Closing Words		